WILLING TO PAY $100,000 A YEAR ALIMONY

NEW YORK, June 11.—Announcement was made today that Howard

Gould is considering the advisability of starting a counter-suit for separation against his wife. Such an action, he thinks, would lessen the chances of Mrs. Gould obtaining a court decree for alimony of $250,000 a year.

One of Gould's friends is quoted today as saying that Mr. Gould would be willing to set aside a sufficient sum for the support of his wife, but that he certainly would not entertain the demand for a quarter of a million dollars a year. He thought it likely that Gould would be willing to give his wife $100,000 a year alimony, and felt sure Gould would consent to settle the suit on that basis, although Gould has never said so directly.

"MANEIGHT" YACHTS FEET TALL" TO START

CHIEF LUNA WHOSE BUSINESS IT WAS TO RICK AND BEAT "THE SLAVES."

The addresses of the attorneys on both sides of the Schmitz case furnish interesting reading. Attorney Campbell, for Schmitz, an able lawyer of the old school, made a forcible address for his client; the closing talk to the jury fell to Attorney Heney. Much was expected of this remarkable man and newspaper accounts say that his auditors were not disappointed. It is claimed that his able summing up greatly assisted the jury in arriving at their verdict of guilty.

Attorney John J. Barrett made the opening address for Schmitz; he paid no attention to the merits of the case, and, almost exclusively, confined his remarks to assaults on Rudolph Spreckels. He closed with the following which is pure fiction:

"It was my fortune five years ago to visit the Hawaiian Islands, passing the island where the lepers live. When those beautiful islands first dawned upon my sight I said to myself that there must have been the garden of Eden. We passed quickly over the rough waters. I saw off in the distance the huge cliff rising to heights immeasurable overlooking the low plain where the poor lepers live out their ghastly lives, and I thought to myself that it was singular that God having created such a beautiful place should have put such abhorrent creatures there. I thought as the steamer went by that it was the most beautiful land in the world and the most degraded of people.

"Then I fell in with the Kanakas. They were poor good-hearted, innocent people. I saw them in the ditches planting sugar cane in the hot tropical sun. I saw standing there a man eight feet tall with muscles of iron, and I asked the superintendent who he was and he told me that he was the chief luna and that his business was that of kicking and beating the natives when they languished at their tasks.

"It was a plantation—and the name of that plantation was Spreckelsville."

BARK FLINT IS LONG TIME OUT

NOT ARRIVED AT ELELEE FROM MAKAWELI AFTER TWO DAYS—SOME ANXIETY.

The Inter-Island steamer Maul, Captain Bruhn, arriving this morning, reported the bark W. B. Flint two days out of Makaweli for Elelee, Kauai, and not arrived up to the time the steamer left Waimea at 3:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

This is unusual and the news occasioned some anxiety there this morning.

AROUND THE ISLAND RACE WILL TAKE PLACE—TIME LIMIT WILL BE EXTENDED.

The Around-the-Island race for the Governor's Cup will be sailed, the yachts starting as per schedule at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Up till this morning it was undecided whether or not to try to make a start owing to the unfavorable wind, which for four days has been blowing from the south in fitful catpaws, which would make the sailing practically out of the question while it lasted. Late yesterday afternoon, however, the wind shifted around to the trades from the north-east, and it was still blowing that way this morning, though very weak. Every indication, however, points to more wind soon, and with this prospect it was decided to make a start. Telephone messages from all points on the island port fair winds from the north-east, and the breeze has been steadily improving all morning.

The regatta committee of the Hawaiian Yacht Club which has charge of the race, met this morning, and owing to the prevailing conditions it was decided to extend the time limit, which was set at thirty hours, and possibly remove it altogether, in case the breeze does not improve.

There are six boats making the start—Kamehameha, Capt. Robert Scott; Gladys, Capt. T. H. Petrie; La Paloma, Capt. C. W. Macfarlane; Hawaii, Capt. D. L. Sorenson; Spray, Capt. H. E. Pickett; and the Helene, Capt. Fred Whitney. With the exception of weather conditions, a race was never sailed by the local yacht club under such auspicious conditions. All of the boats entered are in the best possible condition, having been scraped and painted for the occasion, and put in apple pie order. All have been fitted out with new sets of racing sails, and the owners have spared neither work nor expense in preparing for the event.

Better than all, however, is the clean sportsmanlike spirit in which the contest is being started. There have been no protests or faultfinding with the arrangements, and only the most friendly feeling of rivalry seems to prevail.

If there is not a material increase in the wind, the race is likely to be narrowed down to not more than four boats, for the La Paloma and Helene will absolutely handicapped with a light breeze.

It is hoped that all the yachts will be able to make the harbor again before dark tomorrow night.

PILES TALKS

Senator Piles, who was one of the Congressional Party, has arrived at Seattle, his home. In an interview he is quoted as saying that a sugar refinery is favored at Seattle.

"While in Honolulu Senator Piles discussed with Hawaiian a possibility of strengthening trade relations between Seattle and that city. He found the business interests of the island metropolis enthusiastic concerning the opening of a new trade route and urged that American capital establish a sugar refinery in Seattle which could handle their product. Senator Piles told them that he had no doubt such a project would appeal strongly to Seattle commercial interests and urged that it be brought to their notice."

ALAWA LAND TO BE SOLD IN SECTIONS

COMMISSIONER WILL ARRANGE TO HAVE ROADS BUILT PROMPTLY—CHANCE FOR HOMESSEEKERS

Land Commissioner Pratt will have a conference today or the early part of next week with Acting Governor Atkinson over the date for the sale of a portion of the Alawa lands. It is the intention of the Land Commissioner to offer the lots in sections. He will not put all of them up for sale at once, but will sell perhaps a quarter or a third or even a half at one time and then later sell the remainder. The idea in conducting the distribution of the lots under this arrangement is to avoid any scattering or purchasers. If the entire tract were put up at one sale, the result might be that some lots might be bought on the higher elevation and the majority of the lots in the lower levels. A considerable portion of the lots might not be sold on the first day of sale. In consequence there would be trouble over putting the road into the tract.

It is the intention of Pratt to have the road built as fast as the lots are sold. There will be one section sold and half of the purchase money will be available to build a road to that section, and so on with the other sections as they are sold.

BRUCE AGAIN

It is understood that a real, live rival laundry company is to be started. Bruce Hartman who started the other "rival" to the Sanitary Steam Laundry Company is said to be at the head of the new enterprise. The other company that was started by Hartman, was absorbed by the Sanitary Company some months ago.

Now Hartman is understood to be considering the advisability of starting a new company that will in no way have any affiliations, direct or indirect, with the older concern.
